

Albert Bichot Honoured with Triple Win at the International Wine Challenge

At this year's International Wine Challenge (IWC Awards) in London, held on Tuesday 9 September, Maison Albert Bichot won three of the highest honors:

- Red Winemaker of the Year 2025 (awarded to Maison Albert Bichot for the 3rd time).
- Champion Red Wine 2025, for the Clos de la Roche Grand Cru "Cuvée Cyrot-Chaudron" Hospices de Beaune 2023, crowned the world's best red wine.
- French White Trophy, for the Meursault 1<sup>er</sup> Cru "Les Charmes" Domaine du Pavillon 2023, named best French white wine.

An Exceptional Result for Albert Bichot

In total, Albert Bichot collected 13 trophies, 7 Gold Medals and 5 Silver Medals, a remarkable achievement that reflects not only the expertise of Technical Director Matthieu Mangenot but also the dedication of the estate's vineyard and cellar teams. Their collective commitment, precision and passion bring out the very best of Bourgogne's terroirs.

Two Outstanding Wines in the Spotlight

The Meursault Premier Cru "Les Charmes" Domaine du Pavillon 2023 was praised for its poise, elegance and depth, lifted by a distinctive mineral and saline notes.

The Clos de la Roche Grand Cru "Cuvée Cyrot-Chaudron" 2023, Hospices de Beaune aged by Albert Bichot impressed the panel with its character and complexity,

This wine illustrates the unique character of the great terroirs of the Côte de Nuits and demonstrates Albert Bichot's expertise in promoting the Hospices de Beaune, of which it is a historic and emblematic partner.

Global Recognition of Maison Albert Bichot's Expertise

Founded in London, the International Wine Challenge is acknowledged as one of the world's most rigorous and respected wine competitions. More than 14,000 wines from 40 countries are blind-tasted each year by panels of international experts including journalists, buyers, decision-makers and 15 Masters of Wine. Its rigour, impartiality and high standards make it an essential reference point for producers and buyers alike.

About Maison Albert Bichot : Albert Bichot owns 107 hectares of vineyards across 6 outstanding estates in Burgundy, 5 of which are certified organic, located in the region's most prestigious appellations. Building on this winemaking expertise, Albert Bichot also selects and purchases grapes and musts from long-standing partner growers, vinifying them with the same meticulous care in its own estates. This philosophy ensures the creation of great wines that are both true to their terroir and rich in emotion, establishing the House as one of Bourgogne's foremost names.
